THE RECORD

THE CLUB YOU PLAY FOR

You can name the scorers of a side you only watch. Your own Thursday side is usually a chat.

THE CATEGORY

THREE BUSINESSES. NO BOOK.

01

PICKUP

Every week. A slot, a fee to hold it, a waitlist when it is full, a cancel when someone drops.

02

THE PRIVATE CUP

A named weekend. Teams pay a fee. Prizes and sponsors sit on that weekend.

03

THE CLOSED ROOM

A company game. An auction. No payment gateway to set up.

01 PICKUP

THE WEEKLY GAME

It already happens. What is missing is one place for the slot, the fee, the waitlist and the cancel.

02 THE EVENT

03 THE ROOM

CORPORATE AUCTION

Same shape as the cup. The room is closed. There is no payment gateway to configure, and the score is still written down.

HOW THEY ARRIVE

PUBLIC SCORES

A community can open a game. Anyone with the link follows the score, the same way they follow a league. A player then finds their own name on it.

WHY IT STAYS

MONEY. GROUND. THE RECORD.

01

MONEY

The fee is collected here, not chased in a thread.

02

THE GROUND

The pitch is on the same record as the game. The books can pay it.

03

THE RECORD

The score, the names and the fee are still there after everyone goes home.

THE CREW

WHO RUNS IT

01 PLAYER

Their name, their goals, their assists.

02 HOST

The list, the cash, the game.

03 GROUND

The pitch the game is played on.

04 AUCTIONEER

Runs the auction.

05 SCORER

Keeps the live score, and does not run the game.

AFTER THE GAME

WHAT GETS KEPT

01	LIVE SCORE	From the touchline, while the game is on.
02	STATS	Goals, assists and appearances, kept for the season.
03	A KIT	The result and the table, ready for a player to post.
04	PAYMENTS	Only when money actually changes hands.
05	XP	Points from the result, the goals and showing up. You can see where they came from.

AT 70

THE GOAL IS STILL THERE

A player should still be able to find a goal years later: the date, the game, the tally. Targets for games, goals and distance are not in the product yet. The season totals are.

THE PRODUCT

ONE PRODUCT FOR ALL OF IT

Pickup, the private cup and the company game, in one product.

THE CLUB YOU PLAY FOR GETS A RECORD.
